the real faith charles price: The Real Faith Charles Price, 2018-01-04 The mighty power of God-given faith! Dr. Charles S Price was a preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ and a man that moved in signs and miracles. A doubter at first of the Pentecostal movement, Dr. Price ended being one of its mighty leaders after experiencing the power of the Holy Spirit first-hand. His meetings drew thousands of people and many of them were dramatically healed. He knew that the faith we needed could not come from man, but only from God. It is the faith of Jesus that moves mountains and heals the sick, and even a portion of that faith the size of a mustard seed is enough. The Real Faith goes into great detail about the wonder and power of authentic God-given faith and how we may obtain it. Unlike many other teachers on healing, Dr. Price discusses many real-life situations of when people did not get healed when he first prayed for them, but then also how those same people later experienced the healing touch of Jesus Christ. May you be blessed as you read this book!

The teaching of Kenyon, Hagin and Copeland that Jesus 'died spiritually' (JDS) is important because of the influence of these men, not least on Pentecostalism. JDS originated with Kenyon, and has been taught in the Word-faith movement by Hagin and Copeland, despite much criticism. It incorporates three elements: in this death, Jesus was separated from God; partook of a satanic nature; and was Satan's prey. This theological appraisal takes research far further than previous works, both in method and in scope. It concludes that adoption of JDS by Pentecostalism would be damaging in several respects, and thus draw the latter away from its moorings in traditional Christianity. Pentecostals and others are advised to reject the bulk of this teaching.

the real faith charles price: Two Paradigms for Divine Healing Pavel Hejzlar, 2009-11-23 The doctrine and practice of healing through faith has been a hallmark of Pentecostalism since its inception and helps to account for the widespread appeal of the movement. While "divine healing," as it is called by insiders, has brought hope to the sick, it has also been a source of disenchantment and controversy. The present study offers a close look at the teaching of four major ministers of healing in the twentieth-century United States. The author distinguishes between the healing evangelists and pastoral ministers of healing who react to them. This book discusses in detail the merits of both schools and the author proposes a solution to the problems inherent in the two paradigms under scrutiny.

This devotion is a culmination of years of growth from private time spent daily in God's presence allowing Jesus, the Word made flesh, to rule over the evil nature within, thus allowing the Word of God to be King and Lord. His work began in 1989 as Carol poured her heart out, quietly journaling and giving expression to her feelings, while being alone with the Word. With pen in hand and blank paper waiting, she gained revelation about evils fleshly nature within, the principalities, powers, and rulers without, and about Jesus, the Word, Who is the Revealer of all Truth. From the feelings in her heart, to the thoughts in her mind, to where the pen met the paper, she gained discernment. By expressing her heart in light of the Word of Truth, with the Word of Truth filtering her thoughts and prayers, she discerned her way, aligned her heart and mind with Truth, lived life according to the Truth, and then learned how to pray a right prayer according to the Truth.
