**English Translation:****

“Allah! There is no deity except Him, the Ever-Living, the Sustainer of existence. Neither drowsiness overtakes Him nor sleep. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth. Who is it that can intercede with Him except by His permission? He knows what is before them and what will be after them, and they encompass not a thing of His knowledge except for what He wills. His Kursi extends over the heavens and the earth, and their preservation tires Him not. And He is the Most High, the Most Great.”

Breaking Down the Meaning of Ayatul Kursi

Understanding Ayatul Kursi with English translation allows one to appreciate both the linguistic beauty and theological depth of this verse. Let's explore the key concepts embedded in this passage:

1. The Oneness and Uniqueness of Allah

The verse opens by affirming the central Islamic belief in monotheism: “Allah! There is no deity except Him.” This powerful declaration emphasizes that Allah alone deserves worship and is distinct from any created being. This foundation shapes the entire worldview of Islam.

2. Attributes of Allah: Ever-Living and Sustainer

The description “the Ever-Living, the Sustainer of existence” highlights two vital attributes. Allah is eternal, never dying or ceasing to exist, and He maintains all that exists continuously. This eternal life contrasts with the transient nature of the world and everything within it.

3. Allah’s Independence from Human Limitations

“Neither drowsiness overtakes Him nor sleep” illustrates that unlike humans and all creatures, Allah is free from fatigue, weakness, or the need for rest. This signifies His perfect power and control over the universe at all times.

4. Divine Ownership and Sovereignty

The verse asserts that “To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth.” This means the entire cosmos, every creature, every object, is under Allah’s dominion, emphasizing His supreme authority and ownership.

5. Intercession Only by Permission

“Who is it that can intercede with Him except by His permission?” This points to the concept that no one can influence Allah’s decisions or ask favors on another’s behalf without His explicit approval. It underscores the absolute control Allah has over all matters.

6. Omniscience of Allah

“He knows what is before them and what will be after them” affirms Allah’s complete knowledge of the past, present, and future. Humans, in contrast, have limited knowledge and cannot comprehend Allah’s encompassing wisdom.

7. The Kursi: Symbol of Divine Majestic Authority

The word “Kursi” translates to “Chair” or “Throne,” symbolizing Allah’s authority and dominion over the universe. “His Kursi extends over the heavens and the earth” portrays the vastness of His power and the all-encompassing nature of His rule.

8. Effortless Preservation of the Universe

The verse explains that maintaining the heavens and earth does not tire or burden Allah. Unlike human rulers who might be overwhelmed by responsibility, Allah’s power is infinite and effortless.

9. Allah’s Supreme Status

Finally, “He is the Most High, the Most Great” reinforces Allah’s exalted position above all creation, highlighting His transcendence and majesty.

ayatul kursi with english translation: An Authenticated Summary of the Prophet's

Prayer □ Hafiz Zubayr Ali Zai, 2022-04-19 Excerpt from the Introduction of the Translator - An Authenticated Summary of the Prophet's Prayer □: The Prayer is the first matter about which the slaves of Allāh will be asked on the Day of Resurrection. The Messenger of Allāh □ said: "The first matter about which the slave will be called to account [on the Day of Resurrection] is the prayer." - an-Nasā'ī [468], with a Ṣaḥīḥ Isnād according to Hafiz Zubair 'Ali Zai [raḥimahullāh]. Therefore it is a matter of utmost importance that a Muslim takes care to pray his obligatory prayers conscientiously and completely. And the completeness of the prayer is not only that he prays it in its prescribed time, but also that he adopts the procedure taught by the Prophet □. It is precisely for this extremely important purpose that this translation of the book of the Ḥadīth scholar Hafiz Zubair 'Ali Zai [raḥimahullāh] into the English language, serves: □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ - An Authenticated Summary of the Prophet's Prayer □. One of the many features that motivated the translation of this book for English readers is the extensive Takhrīj [referencing] and Taḥqīq [verification] of the Ḥadīth and Āthār [narrations] used for the individual points. This, among other things, makes it possible for students of Islām of any level to benefit from this book. Someone who is just beginning to learn prayer and needs guidance based on authentic narrations that is neither too crude nor too overwhelming, will be able to derive as much benefit from this book as an advanced student who wants to deal with the Fawā'id [benefits] regarding the Isnād [chain] of the narrations, Āthār and points of Fiqh [jurisprudence] that the author addresses. In order to make a variety of the Fawā'id accessible to as many Muslims as possible, many of the words used in the Ḥadīth-terminology have been summarised in English by the translator. Furthermore, additional Fawā'id have been mentioned in some places. [...] Hafiz Zubair 'Ali Zai has added two chapters in this book, in addition to the chapters of Wuḍū' and a step-by-step guide to prayer: some authentically narrated Adhkar after Prayer and a guide with regards to how the Janāzah prayer is to be prayed. All the Du'ā's [supplications] in this book have been rendered both in their Arabic form and in English. As an additional benefit, an appendix has been added in which the transliterations of some selected supplications have been compiled by the translator, as a benefit for those who are still learning Arabic or who cannot yet read Arabic correctly. May Allāh have mercy on Hafiz Zubair 'Ali Zai and may He accept this humble effort from the translator. Āmīn. 'Imrān Ḥussain Jumada Al-Awwal 1443/ December 2021
