canton mckinley football history: The Battle of Titans Pasquale De Marco, In the annals of American sports, few events have captured the nation's imagination like the first-ever national championship high school football game. On October 6, 2001, two titans of the gridiron, Concord De La Salle and Long Beach Poly, collided in a clash that transcended the boundaries of the sport. This epic showdown between two undefeated teams from vastly different backgrounds ignited a rivalry that would forever leave its mark on the landscape of high school football. Concord De La Salle, a private Catholic school from the affluent suburbs of Northern California, had amassed an astonishing nine-year, 113-game winning streak, the longest in the history of any sport. Led by the legendary coach Bob Ladouceur, the Spartans were known for their meticulous preparation, relentless discipline, and unwavering commitment to excellence. Long Beach Poly, hailing from the gritty streets of Southern California, was a team of underdogs with a chip on their shoulder. Coached by the fiery and charismatic Bruce Rollinson, the Jackrabbits relied on their raw talent, unwavering determination, and unwavering belief in themselves to overcome the odds. The stage was set for a clash of titans, a battle of wills and ideologies. It was more than just a football game; it was a cultural phenomenon that captured the attention of a nation. The eyes of the world were upon these two teams, and they were ready to write their names into the history books. The game lived up to its billing and then some. The intensity was palpable from the opening kickoff to the final whistle. The defenses stood strong, the offenses traded blows, and the lead changed hands several times. With time winding down, the game came down to one final play. The quarterback dropped back to pass, looking for an open receiver. Suddenly, a defender broke through the line and pressured him. The quarterback scrambled to his right, desperately trying to avoid the sack. He spotted a receiver streaking down the sideline and launched the ball towards him. Time seemed to slow down as the ball sailed through the air. The receiver reached out and snagged it just inches from the ground. He broke into a full sprint, racing towards the end zone as the crowd erupted in a frenzy of cheers and jeers. The referee's whistle pierced the air, signaling a touchdown. The game was over. One team celebrated, the other heartbroken. But in that moment, both teams had etched their names into the annals of history. The first-ever national championship high school football game had produced a classic, a game that would be talked about for generations to come. If you like this book, write a review!

Coach Lee Owens (Ashland University, Ohio State University, and Massillon High School), has been writing this book for the past forty-five years. During his coaching career, he had the opportunity to take over six struggling high school and college football teams. Each time the challenge was different, but the message was the same. He told each team they would be champions, and each time it happened. The blueprint for achieving team excellence works in the locker room, but it can also work in the boardroom. Motivating a team of football players is no different from motivating a team of salespeople or motivating your team at home. The Spirit of a Team gives readers real-life examples of how actual CEOs, coaches, and players used these skills to achieve success in the biggest arenas of business and sport. Lee Owens and Larry Phillips sat down with multiple individuals who exemplify leadership. Read the stories of Matt LaFleur, Luke Fickell, Dwight Schar, Sue Ramsey, Steve Clinkscale, Nate Moore, Matt Kaulig, Carl Johnson, Dan Niss, Bob Sebo, and more. Their stories are not only inspiring, but also a validation of the building blocks to team excellence that The Spirit of a Team outlines, mixed with Coach Lee Owens's twenty-six years of coaching experience and Larry Phillips's thirty-five years of journalistic insights.
